Sherman's Plan of Resumption.

Ewing—Do you expect to pay out the silver dollar coined by you for current expenses or only for coin liabilities, or to hoard it for resumption?
Sherman—I expect to pay it out now only in exchange for gold coin or for silver bullion. I am perfectly free to answer the question fully, because on that point, after consulting with many members of both Houses, I have made up my mind what the law requires me to do. I propose to issue all silver dollars that are demanded in exchange for gold coin. That has been going on to some extent, how far I cannot tell. Then without any loss I propose to use silver in payment for gold after the first five millions is purchased, for which an appropriation was made in the Silver bill. I then propose to buy all the rest of the silver bullion which I need under the law with silver coin. As a matter of course, in the current course of business, some of that silver will go into circulation—how much, I do not know. Most of it, I take it, will be

TRANSFERRED TO THE TREASURY
For silver certificates and those silver certificates will come into the Treasury in payment of duties, and in that way the silver will belong to the Government again until silver is so abundant that it becomes the acknowledged basis of coin transactions. We can not pay out silver for the ordinary expenses of the Government, because we have not enough to pay all expenditures in silver, and if silver is maintained at par with gold, and if United States notes are below par with gold, we can not discriminate in favor of any class of creditors. We should therefore have to hold silver at par with gold until we either have enough to pay everything with it or until legal tender notes are practically at par with gold and silver. That is a matter over which I have no more control than any other citizen. Silver dollars being receivable for duties, I must receive them and could not prevent, if I tried, silver from coming into the Treasury either for silver certificates or in payment of duties. As to when I will commence paying them out for current expenditures of the Government or in payment of interest on the principal of the debt, I can not tell, because that would depend on the equality of three kinds of currency—gold, silver and paper.

The question of a sinking fund was fully discussed by Sherman. Also, the effect of the European war on gold. National banks and other subjects relating to specie payment were fully covered, but nothing of a startling character was developed. The conference lasted over three hours.

A stranger who applied at a house in the vicinity of Quebec for some slight favor the other day was met by an old gentleman eighty-five years of age, who hesitated for a moment and then said: "I'll go and ask father." Presently he returned with his father, Paul Leonard, who is asserted to be one hundred and seven years old. The latter owns all the property, and looks after it, and gives his son orders as to what he is to do, and his son obeys as a dutiful child should.

A district attorney, who was cross-examining a doctor on a criminal trial exclaimed petulantly, "A doctor should be able to give his opinions without mistakes." "He is as well able as a lawyer," retorted the doctor. "A doctor's mistakes are buried six feet under the ground," said the lawyer. "And a lawyer's are sometimes hung six feet above it," responded the doctor.

One of our school teachers, a young, unmarried gentleman, becoming exasperated at the repeated disobedience of a seven-year-old girl, laid her across her knee and, raising her skirts, gave her a good spanking in the old orthodox style. After being released the little one burst out between her sobs: "If I was ten years older you wouldn't do that!"

A GOOD PUN.—Mrs. Green, a colored lady, was not allowed to enter the genteel car of the Central railroad of New Jersey, as it was about to move toward Scranton from Wilkes-Barre, but was ordered to go forward to the next or smoking car. Mr. Green, also colored, protested, but of no avail. He subsequently brought an action against the railroad company to recover the penalty of $500 affixed by the Pennsylvania statute as a punishment against any common carrier carrying company for excluding a person from any of its cars on account of his or her color. Green proved his case in the Court below, and recovered accordingly. The railway company appealed to the Supreme Court. On the argument of the case last week, one of the Judges of that tribunal, who probably did not sympathize much with the plaintiff's case, asked General McCartney, the counsel, "what the result would have been if the company had denied the woman admittance to their genteel car on account of her odor instead of her color?" The counsel replied: "Why, in that case, the company would have owed her less, that's all." The house was brought down, and even great merriment was visible on the witness stand itself, but the counsel was not questioned any more. —Wilkes-Barre Record.

THE BIG BRAIN THEORY.—Phrenologists have long pointed with pride to the massive brains of Webster, Napoleon, Thackeray and Cuvier, their mighty intellects proving that high forehead and large cerebral cavities are the necessary and invariable concomitants of human greatness. Webster's brain weighed sixty-three ounces; Thackeray's the same and Cuvier's a trifle more. But here is Heinrich Wahlen, the alleged murderer of Max Hugo Hoene, near the Granger's Centennial Encampment, steps to the front with a brain weighing fully sixty-four ounces, and phrenologists do not seem to take any interest in the matter. There is no evidence of deep laid plot or unusual executive power in the murderer, or genius shown in the method of eluding justice, and it took nothing but a goodly amount of physical force to beat his brains out. Any criminal of ordinary or small brains could have done the same. But the devotees of science pay little attention to such matters of fact. —Pittsburg Telegraph.

How women can manage to sit bolt upright and not change a position, looking neither to the right nor left, during a sermon in church, passes the understanding. A man will sit on a picket fence all the afternoon to see a ball match, but put him in a church pew for three-quarters of an hour and he will wobble all over the seat. It can be said for the women that they do not wobble. —Elmira Advertiser.

The resident of Washington Territory, having heard that another man had settled in the western part of the Territory, immediately applied for admission into the Union as a State, and had promised to elect the other man to the Legislature, if the other man will pledge himself to vote for him for United States Senator.

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1878.

State Teachers' Institute.

The approaching State Teachers' Institute promises to be an assemblage that will initiate a new order of things educational in our State. The benefits accruing to the State, the counties, and to the teachers and those under their instruction, are not measurable in avoidpous as bulky, crude mass matter, nor again as troy weight of dollars or golden eagles. Each teacher who shall attend this institute places himself or herself in contact with some other who has in his heart the work of enlightening the human understanding, of ennobling the human heart and mind. He has his peculiar conceptions of pedagogics. He has his own experiences, and the penned ideas of a few others, but when he gathers in common assemblage the views of his co-laborers, compares notes, arouses his better and far-reaching thoughts on subjects of immediate importance in the class room; he receives a stimulus, a positive benefit not derivable from any other sources; He returns to his duties with new thoughts; he has unruffled himself; he has new and established resolutions; improved plans of imparting instruction; he knows what his fellow-acotrs are doing; what manner of persons they are; what new books to read; he has new life for his work; greater confidence in his own ability; perceives some of his errors in teaching and how he may correct them, and how and what he must do to improve and enlarge upon his methods of inducing the boys and girls into the day of knowledge and from out the prison walls of ignorance. These are a few of the reasons why our teachers should attend the coming institute. Other reasons will suggest themselves to our teachers. Sup't Kelley has prepared an excellent programme. It embraces just the subjects which every teacher, old and young, experienced and inexperienced, are directly interested in, and may derive positive benefit from hearing discussed. Sup't Kelly is making every preparation for the comfort and pleasure of those who attend. The institute sessions will be held in the State Senate chamber, and the teachers will find the best accommodations at the Ormsby House. Those who go and return over the V. & T. R. R. can do so on half-fare tickets. The session will begin on Monday, April 23d, and continue through five days. On Thursday evening, the 15th inst, there will be given a reception by the Au Fait club, of Carson, which will, of course, be appreciated by the majority of teachers, since there are few of them who do not have a penchant for terpsichorean amusement. Our teachers will not, as we are informed, attend in a body, nor will they have vacation to enable them to attend. This, however, is not the fault of the trustees. Last week was somewhat inconsiderately chosen and set aside as a week of vacation instead of appointing the time three weeks later. We hope several of our teachers will attend if for no longer time than one or two days. For full particulars address S. P. Kelly, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Carson, Nev.

They are having it up in Virginia. Oliver Doud Byron is playing a transcription, so to speak, of the Modoc war. A lady is billed as Artine, or Wild Rose, the Modoc maiden, and the News says that Messrs. Crosbie and Vinson "loomed up to a fine degree." We never heard of a Modoc looming very much, except when Captain Jack and Shack-Nasty loomed up, suspended by a rope, and we know that there is some likeness to a ruta bega observable in a Modoc maiden, while her resemblance to the wild rose is not close enough to confuse the average nurseryman. However, they seem to like it in Virginia.

One Louis Abisher, who has been trying for years to obtain acknowledgement as a tragedian, has at last succeeded. He killed himself in San Francisco April 6th. Strychnine gave him that which the fickle public refused.

The Emeralda Herald is kind: "Fifth Volume.—The Reno Gazette has entered upon its third year and fifth volume. The Gazette is a new little journal and we wish it many returns of the occasion.

There has been a great increase of heat in the Suto tunnel, and the miners demand six-hour shifts.

The Reveille congratulates Austin upon a narrow escape from fire recently. Nordeck's assay office was slightly damaged.

The fifty-ninth anniversary of American Odd Fellowship will be celebrated on the Comstock, April 26th, by a grand ball.

The Bonanzas have made the usual $2 proclamation. To date Con. Virginia has paid $74 per share, and California $48.

Rev. T. H. McGrath was thrown from a carriage and seriously injured in Virginia City recently. Three ribs and a leg were fractured.

L. P. Cuno undertook to perforate Dick Brown in Virginia on Saturday. He did not succeed, and is now out on bail for assault with a deadly weapon.

The Eureka Republican says: John L. Walker, of Reno, brother-in-law of Hagerman, who will doubtless be the Democratic candidate for Governor this Fall, is in town.

Senator A. S. M. Carpenter, a member of the late California Legislature, and for some years connected with the Democratic papers of Alameda county, is visiting friends in Virginia City.

A Chance to Secure Freight Contracts.

General Rufus Ingalls, Assistant Quartermaster-General of the Military Division of the Pacific, announces that sealed proposals, in triplicate, are invited and will be received at his office in San Francisco until the 15th day of May next for the transportation of property in the Division for the fiscal year commencing July 1st, 1878, and ending June 30, 1879. Among the places for which proposals for transportation will be received are the following:

From Winnemucca or Reno, Nevada, to Camp Bidwell, California, and vice versa.
From Winnemucca, Nevada, to Camp McDermitt, Nevada, and vice versa.
From Winnemucca, Nevada, to Camp Harney, Oregon, and vice versa.
From Winnemucca Nevada, or Kelton, Utah, to Fort Boise, I. T., and vice versa.

The Silver State fears that unless Winnemucca takes an interest the freight for Bidwell will go from Reno. Let Reno take a corresponding interest and see that it goes from here any way.

The Austin Reveille is fighting mad over the fact that the Enterprise defends General E. S. Davis, and makes some very violent lunges at that gentleman, and the paper which defends him. Among other things the Reveille says that Davis promised to give the Reveille some money on the next Senatorial fight, and has said such things before. We are not acquainted with the details of General Davis' dealings with his constituency in Nevada, but always counted him an honorable gentleman. We can hardly see any justice in discussing him with such disinterested frankness, when the General has done nothing directly to provoke this thunderstorm. We suggest that if the Reveille don't want the money there is no compulsion, and that the Enterprise makes an ill-judged defense when none appeared necessary.

Judge Blatchford in New York, has rendered a decision adverse to Tilden in his income tax suit. The prospects at present are that Samuel will be compelled to settle, although the case is to be appealed to the Supreme Court. It appears that Mr. Tilden was engaged in a great many speculations at the time and says he could not tell how he did stand affected. His explanation bears the same relation to Judge Blatchford's decision as 7 to 8.

Jessie Begelow killed Gus. Batto in Eureka on Saturday, April 6th. The cause of the affray was a difficulty about reserved seats which Batto had purchased and Begelow failed to retain.

MARRIED.

McGLASHAN-KRISER-In Truckee, Sunday, April 7th, 1878. C. F. McGlashan to Miss Nona G. Kiser.

PUT THINGS TO RIGHTS.—We are pleased to note the general disposition of our citizens in cleaning away the dirt and drift of winter, and in beautifying and improving their residences. But, while engaging in this laudable business, let them not forget the by-places and back alleys. Heaps of rubbish piled here and there, not only afford sport for the zephyr but are breeders of fire and destruction. In view of the fact that the dry season is fast approaching, and wooden buildings will soon be in a prime condition for burning rapidly and well, it stands our people in hand to get rid of their tinder piles, lest the careless match or the incautious cigar may bring distress and woe upon them. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

WHY NOT REDUCE?—Our lively men complain at the hard times, and do not let a buggy much often than once a month. They put this lack of business solely on the times, yet make no attempt to enliven their own trade. Men do not feel disposed when times are dull, to buy a buggy-team every time that they go out riding. It is rather expensive. We believe our lively men would do more than twice as much business did they make a material reduction in the hire of their lively teams.

A WORD FROM THE FOOT-HILLS.—Quite a body of land on the foot-hills south of town is now being made arable by a number of Italians. When the aromatic sage brush and the unproductive boulder shall have been removed from this soil and irrigating streams shall moisten the roots of the valued plant, then may the sons of Italy with just pride point to their achievements and the possibilities of Nevada soil.

BALL.—We hear some talk of an invitation party to be given on the 26th inst. The Lenten season closes on the 21st, and the Odd Fellows anniversary is the 26th. Would not a pleasant social party in a cool hall, a party to be given with a little expense, suit those who dance? Let us have the party.

The Workmen.

The Chinese Must Go—Speeches, Debaters—Hooles Wouldn't Go.

Last Saturday evening the Workmen had quite an exciting meeting at the Reno Opera House. About 150 men were present when the meeting was called to order by President Walker. A gentleman, whose name we did not learn, wanted the Constitution re-read and adopted section by section. Mr. Hooles favored the idea. Mr. Cutting opposed. The idea was lost.

Mr. Hooles made a speech in favor of this question, and Mr. Cutting against, the latter gentleman seemed to have the ear of the workmen and carried things his own way. Mr. Leeper was called upon for a speech and responded with a very happy effort, which put everybody in a good humor. Mr. Hooles then offered some resolutions in regard to employment of Chinese, which were adopted, and same gentleman then read a pledge which had been attached to the top of the roll after the names were signed. At this a storm arose and Mr. Cutting wanted to know by what authority such interpretations were made. At first nobody knew. Mr. Jones, who had spoken early in the evening and with much point, also wanted to be informed who was responsible for the pledge. No answer. Mr. Cutting said that he did not want to cut his bonds with the old party to be tied hand and foot in the new. Mr. Hooles defended the pledge, and wanted its opponents to state the faith which was in them. Cutting took up the challenge, told how he fought for his country, would do so again, and did not approve of the resolution. Jones wanted to know again how it got there. Finally Mr. Hooles, after the pledge had been voted down, said that he wrote it. Mr. Jones then moved that Mr. Hooles be requested to resign. An angry discussion here arose, which finally resulted in Mr. Hooles resigning voluntarily. The resignation was not accepted. Mr. Hooles then accused Jones of being a traitor, said that he had conspired to break up the party. Told how Republicans, and prominent ones, (who are they?) had wanted him to give up the management to them. After using up Jones as much as possible, Hooles branched off and said that the Chinese must go, in a speech of twenty-three minutes duration. Jones wanted to reply, but he was gagged summarily by a motion to adjourn, which was carried.

A special meeting will be held next Saturday evening. It is said that Jones has threatened to break up the party, and an attempt will be made to fire him out.

Wedding Bells.

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

Ours has turned that way summer and winter for some years without—however we will let that pass. We were envious this morning of the happiness which C. F. McGlashan showed as he entered this office with an announcement of his marriage. Couldn't wait until he got fairly within the sanctum, but commenced humming an anthem as he mounted the stairs, and we thought then that perhaps a rich uncle had gone home and left him a competency. We were glad to know that his fortune was even better than this—he had secured the love and life service of an estimable and pure-minded woman. And so, putting away envy for the time, we hope that if there be any joy not yet discovered, Mr. and Mrs. McGlashan may learn it, and live to enjoy it for many years. Happy marriage is to woman the pride and justification of a life; to man it should be the beginning of usefulness, and true manhood. That these elements may all unite in the union just formed, is our earnest hope, and so as the wedding chimes still ring, and the new life begins, we bid "Mac" and his fair bride Godspeed on their journey. May they have a "calm sea" and a prosperous voyage.

CUPOLA FURNACE.—The Cupola furnace was fired up this morning, and heavily charged with ore, but from some cause, probably too much ore, the bottom of the ore bed became clogged with slag, etc., thus compelling the operators to withdraw the charge, and take certain precautionary steps to prevent a repetition of the same results. We believe it is the purpose to add to the height of the chimney, thus increasing the draught of the furnace. Another attempt will be made to-morrow.

Jottings.

Original with the Journal—"Ning Pow notes."

—M. C. Lake has returned from the "City of Sin."

—B. F. Bacon, of Boca, was with us yesterday. Thinks of visiting Mormonism, does Ben.

—Jas. Mayberry will commence fluming wood from the mountains south of town about the 10th of May.

—The public schools, after one week's vacation, opened this morning in full force and with full parental consent.

—R. P. Chapin has secured the services of Mr. Trefry, an accomplished propagator from Oakland, and will make the gardens bloom for us this summer.

—The Huffaker school house will be 24x36, and will be supplied with the latest and best school furniture and apparatus.

—E. C. McKenney and Pete Evans are Assessor Fish's deputies. These gentlemen will commence hostilities in a few days.

—W. Frank Stewart, Mayor Belknap, of Virginia City, R. M. Clarke, of Carson, and C. F. McGlashan, of Truckee, are in town.

—The Yellow Jacket Mining Co. have levied an assessment of $2 per share. Silver Hill mine also assesses its stockholders $1 per share.

—Miss Vance, Miss Frankie Griffin, Miss Callie Smart, and Edward Barber each received second grade certificates last Saturday.

—Jas. Bell, was in town yesterday. This morning he appointed as the time for the commencement of the work of running a telegraph line from Carson to Bodie.

—The Susanville stage leaves Hammond and Wilson's stable, at 3 A. M. every morning except Sunday, for Susanville, making the through trip in one day.

—Tom Norcross is now sub-lessee of the State Fair grounds, having leased the same from Messrs Chamberlain & Bragg. Tom will do the fair thing by the society.

—Our genial fellow townsman, J. C. Hagerman, has united East for him as Governor. We also believe Mr. H. will poll a heavy vote in this part of the State.

—The next social of the ladies of the Congregational church will be held Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Poor. A cordial invitation is extended to church and congregation.

—Mr. M. D. Cohn, of the firm of Cohn & Isaacs, goes below to-night to lay in a full stock of spring and summer goods. Mr. Cohn has good selective taste, is reasonable in his prices and will have a well selected assortment of gentlemen's furnishing and dress goods.

—Saturday night Con. Virginia shipped 83 bars of bullion valued at $326,965.40, and weighing 10,690 lbs. This shipment completes the shipments of last month, of which the total amount for this mine is $1,508,333.56. California shipped over $1,700,000. On Saturday both mines declared the regular monthly $3 dividends, making the 34th for California and the 44th for Con. Virginia.

LOOK OUT FOR FIRES.—Look out for back yard rubbish. These are times when the fire fiend walketh abroad, seeking to warm up somebody. The city water is not very plentiful, nor their works in very good repair. At the opening of summer, people are more or less careless, and the spring clean up causes the back yards, etc., to have more than their usual amount of paper and other debris. Defective stovepipes are very treacherous about this time, and the people have not their accustomed caution. Therefore, we beseech you, dear friend, have a mind how you empty ashes, or drop the unsuspected match, else your possessions, and much of your neighbor's worldly goods, will pass away like Elijah of old, in a chariot of fire.

The old axiom that "Man always craves that which he does not possess" was never better illustrated than in the action of Peeping Tom, of Eureka. This idiosyncrasy concealed himself over the dressing-room in Eureka in order to see the Rentz Minstrels mimes the cumbersome fig leaf which they wear upon the stage. The difference between his wish and his possession was so small that an irate peace officer apprehended Thomas and fired him outward with all the force at his command. The press of the base range was also justly harsh toward the offender.

DISTRICT COURT.—The parties who were indicted by the Grand Jury, save Ah Choney, appeared this morning before his honor, Judge Wright, and made the old customary plea. "Not guilty." In the case of N. A. Merrill vs. A. K. Lamb, the demurrer was overruled and ten days allowed to answer. The case of the Golden Fleece Mining Co. vs. Cable Co. Mining Co., was called and this afternoon a jury impaneled. R. M. Clarke appears for plaintiffs, and Judge Belknap and Boardman & Varian for defendants.

CRAZY MAN.—A crazy man came into our office this morning and desired us not to publish some spring poetry, but to advertise his sanity and the injury which he often receives from a certain woman and physician, residents of San Francisco. He appears not to be dangerous, but our officers should watch him for he is certainly non compos mentis.

ADMITTED.—Mr. S. A. Mann has been admitted, on motion, to practice before the State Supreme Court. He has been a member of the bar since 1863, practicing, however, in the first place in the Territorial courts; and afterwards in the District courts of this State. Mr. Mann will make his legal debut not many weeks or months hence.

WATER SUPPLY.—We hear much complaint made against the Reno Water Company. Private residents and business men say that they do not get their supply of water from the company with anything like regularity. In case of fire we might find ourselves sadly in need of water. Let the agent give this matter his immediate attention.

LOST.—A lady lost yesterday a cameo earring set with pearls, somewhere upon the streets of Reno. The finder will be suitably rewarded if he will leave the same at Hammond & Wilson's stable, on Commercial Row.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

GENTLEMEN can obtain furnished rooms by applying at Bender's new house, on Plaza street. 4-17

RETURNED.—Mrs. Julia J. Prescott has just returned from San Francisco, after a careful inspection of all the latest novelties in the line of fancy goods and millinery. Mrs. Prescott congratulates herself that her labors to supply the ladies of Reno and vicinity with the latest styles have been appreciated, and her recent visit of four weeks to the city of San Francisco has been purposely prolonged that she might study and select the exquisite Spring and summer styles, which she now offers to her patrons. Her prices are lower than ever, to suit the hard times, and the goods are new, popular and well established. On Commercial Row. The ladies should call. 4-17

Osburn & Shoemaker, wholesale and retail druggists, Commercial Row, Reno. (Removed to one door west of their old stand). Now offer everything from their large stock at the lowest possible rates. Painis, oils, varnishes, glassware, lamps and lamp fixings, patent medicines, fancy and toilet articles, bird cages, picture frames and picture and cornice molding, etc. The largest and best assortment ever offered in this market. 2-13-17.

For a clean shave and an artistic hair cut, go to Coleman and Peckner's, at the bath house. 3-26-17

Hot and cold baths at Coleman and Peckner's bath house. 3-26-17

C. A. Bragg & Co. are in receipt of a stock of moth-proof carpet lining. It is serviceable, not only as denuding sound, but excludes vermin, prevents the uneven wear of carpets, keeps out cold air and the dampness which arises from cellars, thus adding to the healthfulness and warmth of a house and saving fuel. It can be used year after year without any additional expense whatever. The cost saved twice every season in wear of carpets—Call and examine. 4-25-17.

GREAT NOVELTY.—Miss C. Seltier, Reno's fashionable French milliner, keeps constantly on hand a fine stock of hats, feathers, ribbons, etc. Hats made as good as new by bleaching and pressing. Cloth pressing, stamping and all kinds of silk embroidery promptly and neatly done. Ladies wishing to purchase the latest style of goods in my line, are invited to call and inspect my stock.
